

WARMFIELD – CUM – HEATH PARISH COUNCIL
DRAFT EXTRACTS FROM THE MEETING HELD ON WEDNESDAY 19TH JUNE 2024

Public Consultation

The District Cllrs are going to be holding surgeries once a month for anyone who would like to attend with any concerns or queries that they want to raise with them. These will be held on a Wednesday just before the Parish Council meeting. The District Cllrs will advertise this on the Facebook pages so that residents are aware. The public consultation on the traffic calming measures will be taking place very soon. The Parish Council and the District Cllrs have asked if all residents can be consulted on this. A planning officer from Wakefield Council has been out to look at the site on Willow Lane and this will be investigated as to whether proper procedures are taking place and look at the concerns raised by residents with regards to the large lorries on the narrow roads. District Cllr Khan has raised the Parish Councils concerns to the West Yorkshire Transport Committee regarding the cross country train service from Wakefield to Edinburgh as there are no direct routes the moment.
