WARMFIELD – CUM – HEATH PARISH COUNCIL
DRAFT EXTRACTS FROM THE MEETING HELD ON MONDAY, 19th OCTOBER 2026

Public Consultation

A member of the public said that they thought that the light outside the Community Centre wasn't working. The Clerk asked if it had been turned off. She said she would check it when leaving the building. The hedges on Kirkthorpe Lane up the hill have been cut back but only at the top. It was resolved that the Clerk will ask if these could be cut back. There is still lots of dog poo around Kirkthorpe. It was resolved that the Clerk will ask if the signs can be reprinted around the village. A member of the public asked if it would be possible to have a community library box in Kirkhorpe so that people could swap books. It was resolved that the Clerk would get a quote for one. A discussion took place regarding the tipping and fires at 61a Warmfield Lane and they are now tipping behind the trees. The Clerk has had a response from Planning Enforcement and they have submitted a report to see if a stop notice can be issued to the site. A field in the village has been broken into and the owners have been intimidated to sell the land. The Parish Council advised that this is a police matter and the owners of the field should report this to the police. There is a field off Elsicker Lane which has horses in and a shelter has been put up, a portacabin has also been put in the field. It was resolved that the Clerk would report this to Wakefield Council. The site at Crossley Street just before the gym is getting bigger. It was resolved that the Clerk would report this to Wakefield Council. Representatives from the Church attended the meeting to thank the Parish Council for allowing the use of the Community Centre for the Community Café, which is going well. They would like to use it again next year on the 2nd Tuesday of the month. It was resolved that this could continue throughout next year Free of Charge as it is for the whole Community. There will also be a silent disco held on 23rd January which is free of charge for residents to attend.
